We were new to Tucson and have found this book invaluable. It covers most everything a new resident needs to know. With this book and a good map (you'll need one) you will have a good start in this city. Most information you will need is here. The rest filters in through the newspaper, Tucson websites, and the radio. I highly recommend this book if you plan to relocate to Tucson.

I was looking for a book that would tell me inside information about restaurants, shopping, art galleries, bicycle trails and side trips for our month long visit next winter. This book dealt with all of those subjects and some extraneous subjects I was not interested in. The chapters were well defined, so finding a particular subject was easy. I would recommend this book to visitors as well as those moving to Tucson.

My husband is Air Force and we moved to Tucson for training. Tucson is awesome and this book shows you where to go, where to eat, what to explore. Was definitely worth it! We would have missed a lot if it hadn't been for this book!
