Ava's Thor(n)

Synopsis

Feisty and no-nonsense, Ava is a powerful, successful woman. If only she wasn't also horribly single and alone. Spending most of her nights with her head buried in a good romance, Ava didn't know what to think when she first met the tall, handsome tattoo artist named after a Norse God. She was too busy looking for things to hit him with. But a chance encounter like no other breeds a passion that she has never experienced before. Will Ava be brave enough to look past what she thinks is best for her? Will she realize the man of her dreams is the same man that destroyed her perfect pair of Manolo Blahniks and irritates her to no end with his stunning perfection? Find out if these two flawed individuals can be perfect together in Ava's Thor(n)!

Customer Reviews

I wasn't a fan of the characters, the reality show confession type stuff, and I felt like some aspects have been cut out and it really hurt the story. I would not recommend this book to anybody I know I pretty much rush through it so I wouldn't waste good money.

Thor and Ava have explosive personality but their chemistry is jumping off the pages Once they move past their demons, their relationship starts to blossom. Katherine and Ruby are too old to play little girl's game. I can't for Axel and Evie love story.

I love books that take you on a journey and this book definitely delivers. Even when I wanted to reach through the book and chock some people. It is entertaining and indicative of what people face while in relationships. 5 stars well earned.

I loved this book! This was my first time reading anything by R. J. Fletcher, but it won't be my last. I wasn't sure about the sparks between Thor and Ava. I didn't think they could lead to anything. However, I was pleasantly surprised by how their story unfolded.

Short but sweet and to the point! Thor was a man whore but Ava unknowingly changed that. I would live the story of Evie and Axel!!

Bad boy going good, good girl going bad, all in the name of love. I did not regret buying this and I would but more from this author.Ã Â Â^Â

I really enjoyed Ava and Thorn's story. It was up beat and funny. The banter and sexual tension was to die for. You won't be disappointed.

I loved this quick engaging read! My only wish, as it always is with these, is for more time with them. If ever there's a chance to develop and deepen the story, I hope the author does it. This would be a great one to do that with.
