Gary Burden has been in the insurance industry going on 40 years. His experience includes selling, training and running an independent agency. In 1988, he began Professional Training Institution which specializes in writing and teaching continuing education and pre-licensing classes for the insurance industry. In September of 2010, Gary was joined by his son, Jonathan, who assumed the responsibility of teaching and overseeing the pre-licensing curriculum. Together, in 2010 Gary and Jonathan created their own pre-licensing manuals for both Life and Health as well as Property and Casualty.
