Another entrancing story, marred by poor syntax, grammar, spelling and misused words such as 'poured' for 'pored'. The problem may be that he is German, or it may be that his proofreader/editor is also foreign. I would hate to think that he paid an editor who was simply incompetent. Neti, Shabaka and Moses are back doing their usual thing, getting involved in things outside their royal duties, solving crimes and ancient mysteries. Thoroughly enjoyable. I mean, it must be good, if I keep coming back for more despite the writing errors.

I love this series and its characters, they tend to become better and better as it progresses!! The only downfall would be the ending because it didn't tell me how her niece was healed or if she was healed. Meaning their relationship is still up in the air.

The author has again succeeded in creating a thriller of a mystery. It captivated me so much that I could not put it down! I look forward to more stories of the heroine and her friends as I feel are yet to come because the ending left things unfinished..

This book does not disappoint. The storyline and characters hook you from the beginning of the book till the end. If you love to read these types of books, then you will love this book along with the rest of them in the series.

I have really enjoyed this series of books. I can hardly wait for the next one to come out.

Good read for a mystery lover. History and mystery all wrapped into one, I enjoyed this.

As a mystery lover, I really enjoy reading all kinds of mystery. This mystery book is a great book to add to my collection. The author, Nathaniel Burns really did a wonderful job. This is the first book from this author that I read, and I'm looking forward to read another one in the future. It has a really great story, nice plot and full of surprises. Highly recommended!

You learn much about Egypt and their beliefs in this series. I enjoyed the history and knowledge about their society.
