The Tenderness of His Love by USA Today Bestselling Author Kimberly Rae Jordan
When Tennyson Page gives a struggling single mom and her daughters a helping hand, he never imagines the impact they'll have on his life. But having been hurt twice before by women he'd helped, Tennyson isn't sure he's able to interpret Olivia Duncan's motives correctly. Is it just gratitude on Olivia's part? Or is it something more?

A Heart Reclaimed by Bestselling Author Elizabeth Maddrey
Two landscape architects and former college rivals work together to restore the grounds at Peacock Hill. Will the garden they plant blossom into love?

His Father's Son by USA Today Bestselling Author Autumn Macarthur
Can a small-town single mother regain her lost faith and forgive the past, when her disabled child's father returns, determined to help the son he unwillingly left behind – and the woman he's never stopped loving?

Sink or Swim by USA Today Bestselling Author Lesley Ann McDaniel
Still reeling from the dangerous relationship she fled a year ago, Jen Bloom is finally getting her head above water. Her job as a housekeeper at the Inn at Crescent Cove has been a lifesaver, and the inn's chef – Luke Strong – has become her best friend. But what she really wants now is to manage the inn. Then another woman arrives in town to interview for the management job. Realizing that the woman has her eye on more than just the job, Jen questions her own motives for staying in Crescent Cove. Is it the town – or the promise of love?

Angel Kisses and Riversong by Bestselling Author Lynnette Bonner
After a career ending injury, Jett Hudson escapes to a B&B in the mountains of Washington. But when he arrives and has to wake owner Salem Finn, who is sound asleep at her desk, he starts having second thoughts about his choice of lodging – even if her messy bun reminds him of a halo, and her soft gaze has a way of making him forget to breathe. Sometimes the river of life takes unexpected turns. And sometimes those turns lead to angel kisses – and Riversong.

Skye by Bestselling Author Heather Gray
When Skye reaches her limit, she packs a bag and runs away from it all – without realizing what she's running toward. Sam is the only wrinkle in her plan. What happens when a woman chased by guilt and fear runs headlong into a battle-hardened Marine who isn't used to backing down?

Ask You Later by USA Today Bestselling Author Jan Thompson
He lives and breathes expressive art. She has no time for his type of fluff. A struggling artist tries to get his recycled mixed-media art pieces displayed at a local art gallery now run by the owner's daughter who has zero appreciation for his folk art.

Customer Reviews

I had only read or knew about Autumn until before buying this set. I will be buying more from each of these authors.

This is an amazing collection of inspirational clean romance. There is no sexual content or cursing. There is a lot to smile about and some things to pondered. Highly recommended.

Each story gives a different view of life - always with Christ in the picture. Individual characters' lives can be lived through the author's words. Enjoy the whole series!

I read more than half the stories and they were mostly three and four star reads. A great way to find new authors.

The books were clean. My favorite was Skye. The set was mixed in quality as some books were much better than others.

Relax, enjoyable readings Love the entire series

I'm a Lynnette Bonner fan and have read only good stuff by Lesley Ann McDaniel, so their titles alone make this set worth having. I started with Angel Kisses and Riversong, and Bonner didn't disappoint. With the music of the river that must have given the town of Riversong its name playing in the background, the stage is already set for romance. Add a cute couple and a dash of chemistry and we're well on our way to a sweet summer escape. Salem is everybody's kind of heroine--hardworking, resourceful, loyal to her Gran. One glimpse of her struggle to balance running her own bed-and-breakfast with the thankless task of caring for someone with dementia and you so want to root for her. Then along comes Jett to her B&B. He's a little larger than life, with his stellar football career and quest for anonymity away from the limelight, but at the same time he's totally relatable in his vulnerability to life's changes and his struggle to make sense of what God is doing in his life. He's particularly keen on figuring out how it all fits in with his rapidly escalating attraction to the B&B owner, who seems to be part angel and part culinary genius. The interplay between Jett and Salem is fun to watch, with lots of tension-filled romantic moments and a few laugh-out-loud ones. Countering this are some painful moments with Gran, but the way Salem and Jett rise to the challenge brings out the gold in both their characters. This is a lovely summer escape, complete with a heart-melting ending. Looking forward to Sink or Swim next and the chance to sample the other authors. If they're anything like Bonner and McDaniel, Cherish should prove to be a nice find.

This is a book of second chances, moving on, friendship, and how awesome and important friendships are, whether with people. or with God. It's a tender romance that will melt your heart. I cant wait to read the rest of the books in the series.
