ABOUT THE AUTHOR Deanna Draper Buck originally wrote her simple versions of scripture stories as gifts for her family. Her "My First" boardbook series includes stories from the Old and New Testaments, the Articles of Faith, and Church History. She and her husband, George, live in Louisville, Kentucky. They have eight children and eight grandchildren. ABOUT THE ILLUSTRATOR Jerry Harston, illustrator of the "My First" boardbook series, worked in the graphics department of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints as an illustrator for more than thirteen years. He now runs his own studio and lives with his wife, Elizabeth, near Cleveland, Ohio.

This book is even better than the others... the colors are more vivid and captivating. Also, I love the stories that are featured in this book, though they are very short - they allow you to help your children become familiar with events and characters - allowing you to expound whenever you wish. This book features stories about Captain Moroni, Nephi, Amon and his brothers... etc. A great installment! This series is great for teaching your children about the scriptures without the hype and crazy cartoon characters that seem to be disrespectful and not as pure and simple as I prefer.

The photos in this book and retelling of the stories left MUCH to be desired. This did not captivate my children at all or help them develop any greater interest or love for scripture. The stories are so incredibly bland and void of detail. Reading from the actual scriptures was far more interesting for my 2, 4 and 6 year olds. We also ordered some of the books from the Who's Your Hero scripture story series by David Bowman and were much happier. I highly recommend those books.

This is just as great as the original! I love the stories they added.

Our family has enjoyed Book Of Mormon Stories in our family home evening activities. It has very colorful pictures to keep the children's attention and nice thick pages for little hands to turn and not rip. Now that our oldest is reading, it has easy language and large type. Good to reinforce Church lessons and if children are confused by the formal language of the Book of Mormon. Highly recommend.

I like it, but I am on the lookout for a better "book of mormon" for my 2 year old. It is something to help me teach him some basic stories and I don't regret the purchase.

Awesome book for kids my daughter loves reading through it and she loves looking at the pictures. Great introduction to the book of Mormon for toddlers.

I love this series of scripture books. The pictures are beautiful and the stories are well selected and age appropriate for small children. Sturdy board books. My children use these to write talks for primary. The stories are clear and easy to understand. Great to find them on !

More Of My First Book Of Mormon Stories Deanna Draper Buck a great book for young children and early reader a well done job and I would highly recommend it to parents and grand parents
