Father For Three Weeks: A BWWM Billionaire Romance

Synopsis

It was never supposed to be more than a brief business arrangementâ Billionaire Ethan Harrison needs a wife -and fast. With his dashing good looks and steely gray eyes, Ethan is the quintessential billionaire playboy who doesnât believe in commitment of any form. Single mother Gabrielle Wilsonâs world is centered over her daughterâs happiness. This hard-working nurse is desperate to earn enough money to move into a safer part of town where they would both be safe. Which is exactly why Ethanâs proposition is so hard to turn down. Ethan billionaire philanthropist wants to buy property from a partner but he has been sleeping with man daughter who now wants a relationship with him. To extricate himself from the situation he fakes that he is reconciling with his wife and daughter. He meets Gabrielle a nurse at the hospital he is donating to and offers her a financial way out for her and her daughter. She agrees after her daughter is attacked at her school. They are wary of each other but shortly after they falling love, however his past will do anything to prevent a happily ever after. Now the flaws, editing. Hire one you would think as an author you would be embarrassed not to have your work checked. Ex is she wearing a nÃ©gligÃ© or a dress the first time they make love the author kept going back and forth as if she didn't remember. Second if the man is your business partner how did you not know you are sleeping with his daughter or he not know you have bed married for years. Thirdly you let a woman who abandoned you as a kid intimidate a eight year old and your wife. Really. But if you can overlook these flaws good read.

Really enjoyed this book! One of her best if you ask me. Got quite intense at times but there were some light moments as well

This was a nice read. Kind of wish I knew what happened with Petra and Rachel would have been put in jail. I would have found a reason. Just happy that momma bear didn't get ignint on the white people. Lol. Love the story, well written. Minor mistakes. Just a bit long for it to get to the point. Hint the 4 stars.

I have to say, I honestly loved the stories. Gabrielle was one feisty mama bear and any mom will be able to understand the lengths she went to in order to secure her daughter's future. Ethan started off as a typical arrogant billionaire but as the story develops, you understand why he turned out the way he did and by the end, I was head over heels in love with him! An absolutely recommended read!

Great book. Had some family dynamics and suspense included with Rachel, Ethan's mother, working for Petra to break up Gabrielle and Ethan to the point of endangering Shaunice. Rachel was in it for the money and point proven when, after the wedding, she text Ethan for money!! love the happy ending, the wedding and their daughter Amelia coming along.

It was good but Gab was too over protective. Which isn't good. Yes, bullying not okay but instead of going to the principal to change the setting of dance because your child doesn't have father. Not okay, if, the kids bullying your kids because she don't have a father. Have a pta meeting or talk to the kids parent about the bullying. No one should have to change a event for your child. I understand, she been through a lot as a child in a abusive home but the child is spoil and shouldn't be throwing tantrums like that. That's also an issue

Gabrielle and Ethan were a mismatched couple in the beginning but as time moved on they realized they had more in common than they knew. The tantrums her daughter was having kinda threw me off for a minute, a seven year being that defiant would realistically get more than a month worth of no deserts. Good storyline overall.

Gabby,shay petra,etc were just tooooo craazy, Ethan just thought he was damaged, and Richard was too cool. The second story was waaaaaaay more entertaining. Byron went all in and Ashley was pretty cool for a woman who has been through so much.
