Customer Reviews

The first book is so chock full of information.... I had a feeling there wouldn't be much else to say for the second book. I was right. Not a terrible read at all, but the first book is where its at. Still love Theresa.

Theresa Caputo shares her gift with spontaneity and wit. Her humor blends well with life lessons ranging from sound everyday advice to profound reflections on human behavior coming from a unique perspective. One cannot help but be comforted by the message and even more so, the messenger. I find Theresa's warmth and immediacy engaging and altogether believable. Though her gift comes as something of a mystery to most of us, Theresa's warmth & humor are entertaining, her insight - amazing. Her messages can lift the soul and bring comfort in the face of all life's uncertainty. One indulges the material with curiosity & pause, not to walk away disappointed. I find the book compels a sense of introspection & greater hope for ourselves and society in general. I'm definitely a fan of the message and its most inspiring messenger.

I did not expect this level of writing from this woman. It's chatty but informative. Really enjoyed it.

That was an interesting book. I found it just wow. And like the title says "you can't make this up" Makes me want to believe that there might actually be a place after this world. Which I kinda think is cool, but then again I do believe in ghosts.

I am a believer in the paranormal but this is one of those rare books that did not grab or hold my attention. I read about a fourth of it and found it boring and sent it back to the clouds.

Love it! Fun and entertaining and teaches her perspective of the spiritual world. I loved it. Her personality is fun to follow and I love her seriousness in her beliefs. I enjoyed some of her philosophies. I'm not a huge fan of her show. But I saw her in a live event and her true personality was stunning. I loved watching her work and became a fan. Her books follow her in person true to self personality. I catch her show occasionally but still not my favorite. She offers some great thoughts for those who like to think outside of the box. I highly recommend both of her books.

I really enjoyed reading Theresa's Book. I watch her on Sunday nights and really like the show very interesting subject matter. Seems like a very nice person. What a great gift she has. Brings much peace to so many. would recommend.

Her writing style is friendly, upbeat, witty and revealing. Was pleasantly surprised I liked this as much as I did.
