Customer Reviews

I often do not like short stories but I do find that I like this one. This story fills us, the readers, in on more of the Morgan history. It would have been a bit difficult to put this information into a book without perhaps taking away from that book's plot and tempo. This story is written from Cheerio's point of view as he continues to heal.

I love this series and have read all four within a few days. Harriet is my favorite character. This book was really excellent to give you a little peak into things that happened a long time ago. I can't wait for the next book.

This is a very short story that fills in some background details. It was fun and interesting for as far as it went, but then suddenly stopped. That abrupt ending was less than satisfying.

This is a short read that tells a secret that Hazel has held on to for her entire life. It also, through the eyes of Cheerio the dog, what he feels toward his mistress.

I love Australian shepherds, they are so intelligent. This is sweet interlude in this series as we wait for the next book.

Secrets revealed and now on to more wonderful reading in this engaging series.

A quick read that gives a little fun insight to the main series. Can't wait for more this series is a wonderful one.

I'll have to check into the other Angela C Blackmore books. I love a mystery and this series has a few I think
