Includes almost all the songs (including a song cut from the movie). NOTE that these are indeed the FILM versions, which are slightly different from the Broadway versions. Keys and lyrics have been adjusted accordingly. This makes this purchase worth it, as often times the music gets recycled and isn't true to the film versions.

Nice array of songs from the movie. Something for every skill level. Great gift to someone learning piano, a music teacher, or a big musical fan.

While I love the music from this movie, I have to admit Stephen Sondheim is hard to play! Still working on it but will be worth it when I master it!!

Very pleased, some minor changes from the movie version, but all in all very satisfied.

This is a very nice book. Not all songs are in it including I Wish.

No chords! I was very surprised.

I was expecting piano parts to be melody, but it was all obscure accompaniment.

If you like Sondheim's more recent music this is for you; if you don't, buy something else. Frankly, "No One is Alone" is the only song anybody will remember from either the stage production or the movie, so you might as well just buy that one and save a few dollars.
