Customer Reviews

There are TONS of wonderfully delicious recipes in this book. I love how listed is what the foods do... i.e. anti-inflammatory, high in protein, etc. And it says the recipes all take about 15 minutes of prep time. I don't do Tofu or Tempeh due to it being a processed soy product and not ideal for women's breast health, but the recipes appear to be easily adaptable to use chicken or turkey in replacement (obviously organic and non hormone meats). The only downside is the initial purchase of altering ones kitchen pantry around to accommodate this new lifestyle, but it is so entirely worth it.

My wife was recently diagnosed, this book explained EVERYTHING! Great information. Highly recommend. Even the binding is good quality (she says it's a "pretty book")
