Customer Reviews

I enjoyed this boxset. It contained great introductions to a lot of stories that seem pretty interesting. I will definitely be checking out some of the other books in these series. I really love Erin Hayes Cotton Candy Quintet series. I Want to be a Pirate was Erin's contribution to this boxset. It was a short, but sweet story. It is a story about how Neptune one of the characters in the series became the owner of Neptune's World. I also enjoyed Ninjas and Nephilims by Kristin D. Van Resseghem. It's was a good introduction to Kristin's Enlighten series. It made me want to go and re-read the series.

This is a boxed set of 15 stories—supernatural, fantasy, witches, wizards, and more. With this many stories, I think it's natural that I enjoyed some more than others, but overall, I liked them all. Only one story lacked any excitement, but the others held my interest. In fact, there were several stories that left me hanging—really wanting to know what happens next. I understand that many of these stories will continue in the Marked By Fate boxed set coming out soon. I look forward to reading those stories, especially the ones that continue the stories I liked the most here.

Picked up this book for Kelly St Clare's prequel to The Tainted Accords because I will never be able to get enough Olina and my only disappointment was I wanted to keep reading more! I definitely will be reading TTA again next!! I had never read any of the other authors in these origin stories and was also pleasantly surprised by how many new series and authors I will have to start reading! This is a great introduction to all these authors and their very different writing styles. I just wish each author had written more!

I was really only familiar with two of the authors in this collection and am so happy I was not disappointed with all this new talent. I now have many new series I must read because I Loved all the short but exciting glimpses in to each of these amazingly entertaining worlds. I must know more now.....Heart pounding action, interesting characters, Interesting new worlds and exciting reading that kept me entertained for the entire sunny afternoon sitting in my backyard relaxing, did not even notice the sun going down. Excited to Read Marked by Fate later this year.

This is an anthology, and a short story anthology. Because of that, it's hard to give it a rating. Most of the authors and stories in it are very good, but there are a few that I skipped because they weren't to my taste. There were a few that were absolutely brilliant and I can't wait to read the novels in the bind-up coming soon. I bought this mostly just for Sarah K. L. Wilson's short story and I would have been overjoyed if that was all I got out of it, so finding a few more great authors is enough to make me very happy.

I am loving this boxset so far. This is an amazing grouping of authors which is why I purchased it. So far I am truly loving all of the authors whose stories I have read which are all I expected and more. Erin Hayes, Melissa A Craven, Lena Mae Hill and of course Melle Amade are so far my favorites but I am hardly done. You most definitely won't regret it.

I really enjoyed the stories in this box set. It teases us with tidbits of great stories. Now I have found new authors to add to my TBR list. Such a variety of stories for every taste. So many talented authors in one collection. Emerge the Captive by Melissa A Craven was one of the stories that I enjoyed discovering. Glad I purchased this book.

I received an ARC in exchange for a review. I have to admit I have not read all the stories yet, but from what I've read so far I really enjoy them. I have put the connecting books or series on my TBR list from the ones I have read. It has a little bit of everything and the reader can see all the different writing styles from the various authors. There seems to be a story for everyone! Go check it out. You will not regret it.
