Customer Reviews

"The easy way to success & self confidence in the work place! I have several of Glenn Harrold's CDs from this series and I can truly say they are all very effective. The fact that his voice fades in and out and from left to right really helped me focus in a much better way than I have ever done with other hypnotherapy tapes. I've recently gone through an extremely stressful change of career and move to a new town (where I don't know anyone) and can honestly say that both this and the Self Esteem titles have helped me no end. I was a bit sceptical about the title at first, as obviously only YOU can create your own financial success. However, the more I thought about, the more I realised that you need to BELIEVE you can do it in order to achieve real success in your career, which, of course, leads to financial success. I don't know how it works or whether it's just because I believe it does. Either way, the more times I listen to the CDs in this series, the quicker I relax and fall asleep, the better I sleep, the more positive I feel when I wake up and more able to cope with difficult situations. If they work for me - right in the middle of a very difficult time - then I think that they will work for just about anyone!" --Review Source - (USA)

I have great results with Glenn Harrold hypnosis cds. I love the energy of them, he seems very centered and in alignment so I am able to resonate well with his cds. The techniques used in the cd are very effective with repetition to take you into a deep state of relaxation and some wonderful sensations. I tend to feel a very positive physical feeling of my body dropping away. It's hard to describe but I find his cds addictive as it feels very good to get into that state of hypnosis/meditation.

I started with 3 of his cd's and love everyone of them. Glad I had reviews to go off of. Was very leary of purchasing them but the reviews made me feel better about spending money at a time I had little to none. In fact I bought a couple more of his cd's because they are just awesome. You definetly get relaxed and I find that I end up falling asleep when I listen to them ...but I sleep really good. I find when I start getting in a negative mood or I am not balanced I slip in one of his cd's and get myself back on track. I did not realize how negative I have been my whole life. His cd's have affirmations you repeat and at first I found it very hard to say "I am worthy and deserving" etc... I have only been using them for a couple of weeks but the positive affirmation (even when I fall asleep) seem to be seeping into my life little by little. I look forward to listening to them at all times of the day and night and most the time I find myself drifting off. My son thinks I am depressed because I am sleeping so much but in reality these meditation cd's are undoing a life time of self-destruction. I just can't help but fall asleep when I get as relaxed as I do when listening to them. As far as financial abundance I have yet to see but have had small things happen or big things depending on how you want to look at it. At least I don't worry about how things are going to be paid anymore. I just try to enjoy life and do my best at whatever I am doing. When I start getting negative thoughts on finances or on myself I just slip one of his cd's in and get myself refocused. It's no wonder my son thinks I am depressed...I find I put one of his cd's in 3 to 5 times a day and listen to them when I go to bed as well. I believe I will cut down on the amount of times as I gain more confidence in myself and my abilities. I tend to wake up shortly after the cd's ends when I use them during the day but don't remember listening to the end of the first track must less the second track. Love the way the sounds echo and his voice relaxes me into a deep transe or sleep. They all seem to have 2 tracks on the cd's. He is very good at what he does and I highly recommend them.

The voice is soothing, it takes little time a day. I don't know if I have yet reaped any discernible financial benefits, but I do know that it's worth a try and that it is relaxing and gives great affirmations that alone should help make new and better habits. I think I'm relearning how to save and not impulse-buy as often. Overall, worth the money to try it. Just make sure you keep doing it for at least a month to see if it benefits you; it is not immediate, hypnosis takes time as you're altering habits that have been there fore years and changing your frame of mind.I really like this product and I enjoy Glenn Harrold's voice. Not a scary thing at all, and I've listened to it without relaxing completely, and he's not giving you weird subliminal messages or anything, which I find comforting!

These CD's are an easy listen filled with wonderfully phrased, motivational words. Glenn's Australian accent is a pleasure to listen to. Places on the CD have music as well that accompanies the voice. I LOVE these CD's and own most of them. If you live in the states you may hear an occassional terminology that is not common in the U.S. (Example, in the weight series he uses a weight measurement of a 'stone' which is a British term that represents 14 pounds). This happen rarely and certainly does not detract from the message presented in any of Glenn's CD's. You can't really listen to these in the car as they are a little hypnotic so be sure you are in a stress free mind set and location when you listen to any of these CD's. I felt they were worth every penny.

This is one of the best hypnotherapy cds I have. The british voice is very relaxing and the music is beautiful. One side guides you through a tour of your dream car and dream home. There are affirmations that pan from one ear to another and slowly fade away. Both side one and two are 24 minutes long.

Glenn Harrold, as always, is spot on with his insightful approach to what's holding us back with respect to earning more money and acquiring financial wealth and stability.

Came in great condition. I've listened and I am having some mental sharpness so far. Now I haven't listened with ear phones on yet...Getting excited about what other transformations will come.

very relaxing cd. I listen mostly when im in bed and dream about making my business a success, definitely, did not hypnotize me
