Customer Reviews

This newly revised and expanded edition of this classic preaching resource is the essential guide for preachers who want to stir the embers of revival. John Piper has added valuable new material reflecting on his thirty-three years of preaching at Bethlehem Baptist Church, offering a glimpse of what a lifetime of putting God first has done for the faith of the hundreds of thousands who have heard him preach over the years. "The Bible is not a book of practical suggestions on how to live a better adjusted life. The Bible is a revelation of God. The Supremacy of God in Preaching reminds preachers of what we easily forget to our peril and the peril of the people in our care."--Haddon Robinson "Calls us back to a biblical standard for preaching, a standard exemplified by many of the pulpit giants of the past, especially Jonathan Edwards and Charles Spurgeon."--Warren W. Wiersbe "John Piper passionately and prophetically calls all preachers to make God supreme over any method and in every message. The plan is too simple for a fallen world to notice and too powerful for a faithful preacher to ignore."--Bryan Chapell "The Supremacy of God in Preaching is one of the few truly indispensable books on gospel ministry."--Philip Graham Ryken "Occasionally, among the myriads of books for ministers, a work appears so seminal to the preacher's calling that it can safely be said: 'This is a must-read.' The Supremacy of God in Preaching is such a book."--Sinclair B. Ferguson "Here's a book that every preacher should read at least once a year. This book is a powerful antidote to the unbalanced, self-centered preaching of today."--Erwin W.

One of the best books that I have read in years! It is a must have for the Pastor. It is by the way that Piper talks about preaching in this book that when I read it I thought to myself, "This guy knows how to preach." I've liked him ever since.

Simply the best book of preaching that you can buy. There are other books that are necessary and good. Piper doesn't cover everything about preaching; however, unless you begin with the foundation that he gives, you will soon get off track. Read it, re-read it and thank God for this wonderful servant of His.

Piper at his best. An excellent writer! A moving book, leaving the preacher in awe of God and motivated to seek and proclaim the Lord's glory. Piper reminds us of our task and the incredible privilege it is to be called by God to Pastoral ministry.

Oh man!!! Where to begin! My husband and I ordered this book knowing it would be great! Truly this is a keeper. Practical Truths were shared and powerful illustrations of what it looks like when we preach (teach) for God alone. I believe my eyes were opened by Piper's personal examples of relying on God and trusting Him in every part of His preaching. Even though we "know" we are to rely solely on the Holy Spirit. It was still very humbling for this teacher/preacher duo to read and reflect on how we are not trusting God to sustain us I'm doing the work He, Himself called us to. I would and already have suggested this to many already.

I believe every pastor would greatly profit from reading this book at least once a yr! Piper reminds us of the dangerous responsibility and deep privilege it is to herald the mysteries of God.

Awesome book. Very inspiring and encouraging. And I am not even a preacher. Just a plain ol' fashion good reading book for anyone. You need not be a preacher or in the ministry to enjoy and be inspired by this book.

Sound, biblical, classic Piper. Worth reading more than once.

An amazing book for all who teach God's Word. I LOVE this book.
