Customer Reviews

Robert Ballard is a former commander in the United States Navy and a professor of oceanography. He is best known for his historic discovery of the sunken R.M.S. Titanic.

We had the original "adult" version checked out from the library. This is perfect for our son, who is obsessed with the Titanic and Robert Ballard these days. He very proudly reads it aloud to us; he's in third grade.

Kids love anything Titanic.

Read it to my children. They hung on every word and picture as we paused to discuss what they remember.

My seven year old son loved this!!! Now he wants to watch the movie. He read it with enthusiasm and very quickly...

Thank you

I was thrilled when my son started reading and was glad to buy books of interest for him. This book was used a lot in our house, he even took it with him when we went to the traveling tour of the Titanic. Loads of great information.

Excellent book, with great pictures and stories of passengers as well as Ballard's discovery. My son (6) loves to read about Ruth, and life on the Titanic. My 4 year old loves to have the story read to him, and loves all the pictures too. Great book for a good price!!
