Dr. Jay E. Adams is Director of Advanced Studies and Professor of Practical Theology at Westminster Theological Seminary in Escondido, California. He received his B.A. from Johns Hopkins University, his B.D. from the Reformed Episcopal Theological Seminary, his S.T.M. from Temple University, and his Ph.D. from the University of Missouri. In addition to having served as a pastor and then a Professor of Practical Theology at Westminster Theological Seminary in Philadelphia, Dr. Adams has been the Dean of the Christian Counseling and Educational Foundation, Laverock, Pennsylvania, since its founding in the early 1970s. He has written over fifty books, translated the New Testament into English (The Christian Counselor's New Testament), and lectured throughout the world. His books deal with many aspects of pastoral ministry and counseling as well as Bible study and practical Christian living

For the Biblical Counselor, this book is the standard text. No other one comes close. Thorough, thought provoking, well written, it balances theory with practice. Read Competent to Counsel first.

Excellent. And offers solid help from the author of Psychology, Jesus.

This book explains the reality of sin in our lives and how to deal with it and help others in a loving and challenging way. Our society has taught us that many of our problems are mental when they are really rooted in sinful behaviors that cause depression and other problems. Thoughtfully considering the teachings of this book can be very helpful to those seeking help or seeking to help others.

very good

This book is for school, and the chapters that I have read so far give me a different perspective on Christian Counselors.

A powerful book that I will be carrying with me in life and ministry! It is honestly the best book I have read on this subject! It was a bit long to read but I loved it and it was worth it! THANK YOU SO SO SO much for this masterpiece

There is so much practical information in this book. This book reminds me of an inclusive dictionary (a dictionary which has every situation in it). The instruction/teaching in this book is Biblical and to the point (direct).

I have yet to receive this book, but I will get it tomorrow. The shipping is speedy which I like best. I am a Nouthetic Counselor and studied under the author of this book. It is a great manual for all Christian Bible-based counselors. This is my second copy and I will purchase another when I wear this one out. :) Dr. Paul Douglas Smith, M.NC.; Th.D.
