Synopsis

Excerpt from Travels in the Pyrenees: Including Andorra and the Coast From Barcelona to Carcassonne It was a Mediterranean landscape, fraught with that historic significance that is inseparable from these lands that border the old-world sea. I for one never look upon a cypress, with its dark grave outline and perfect form, Without thinking of the Great King and of Salamis, and of all the successive hosts of Islam which have beaten themselves upon Christendom in vain. And here I remembered that I was upon the very threshold of some of their greatest triumphs and disasters.
