Customer Reviews

This book could be so much more than 2 stars if it were properly edited by a native English speaker. The translation and composition errors are numerous. Think: "I fed this through Google translate and here you go!" Regarding the content, some tips are decent, but nothing like a Frommer's Guide or a book in the Rick Steves series. I urge the author to get an editor and put out a second edition. It is exhausting trying to read English that is so littered with errors.

This is a good guide book if you want or planning to travel in Spain grab this book! The content of this book is really well laid out and really made me informed as a armchair traveler. It breaks down the different regions of Spain and offers food, arts, history and traveling information in a well-produced book. Highly recommended!
