Customer Reviews

Rich, thought-provoking and diverse; an illuminating guide to the landscape of film studies * Mark Cousins, director, critic and creator of The Story of Film: An Odyssey * Impressive for range and readability ... An unusually absorbing reference work for students and film buffs alike * The Independent * Film-studies students will find it invaluable, but anyone whose interest in movies strays beyond the popcorn circuit should have it on their shelves. * Philip Kemp, Total Film * I could find little to fault in this work...[it] will... enhance understanding for anyone interested in film and film criticism. * Bob Duckett, Reference Reviews *

This is a very good reference work for film terms, and the kindle version is very easy to use. There's enough detail to understand each term without the points getting lost in too much description.

A rather nice dictionary full of useful terms. Helped me on more than a few of my papers last semester.

great reference book
