Customer Reviews

If you are thinking about the Total Consecration to Jesus through Mary, this is the one you want. By the original saint who started the devotion. I will not get into the theological discussions here, but to say clearly, if you wish to do this, I recommend using the formula of St. Louis Marie de Monfort.

This is an excellent book for someone wishing to make a special consecration to Jesus through his Mother, Mary. It is a 33-day consecration, which the book recommends completing on a special feast day within the Catholic Church (Immaculate Conception, Assumption, etc.). Each day you have one or two short readings, followed by some prayers. Allow about 10-15 minutes, plus time for the rosary, during certain weeks of the consecration. I feel that through making this consecration, the Blessed Mother has brought me closer to her Son, Jesus.

This was written beautifully. The flow of the prayers for each day is very easy to follow. In the front is a nice table, giving you the option of dates to start the Consecration, and it'll tell you when to expect to complete it. Unfortunately, this year is a Leap Year, so I had to do a little math to figure out the dates, lol. I also like the size of the book, which fits nicely into my purse, if I want to take it to Church with me. There are apps for the iPod and other techno gadgets, but I like having the option to have the paper version with me anywhere.

J.M.J. I had borrowed this exact edition from a friend, and completed the 33-day Consecration. Soon thereafter, I returned the book to her, and, then, immediately looked on , and bought it for me and my family. The book was just as described. Everyone should have this book, and follow through with its instructions, to totally Consecrate themselves to Jesus through Mary...our salvation depends upon it!!!

If you would like to make a special practice and more than a novena to God's Mother, this is the most beautiful Apostolic Action to do!It came highly recommended by a Capuchin Friar.

I bought this to help me with guided meditation. I have thoroughly enjoyed this book in helping me on my spiritual path. It helps me to become calmer and more insightful. I would highly recommend this book.

For anyone considering dedicating themselves to the Blessed Mother this booklet has 30 days of scriptural readings to do before a feast of Mary and then make one's dedication on one of Mary's big feasts.

I came to like this thin booklet right away, and found it very concise but to the point. I will definitely share it with my friends who can only benefit from this. In other words, it is a must have item...
