Bill P. worked in the alcohol/drug addiction field as a historian, educator, and author, including four years with the AA Grapevine Magazine and nine years with Hazelden. Bill passed away in 2007.

I was thrilled to find this book as I had bought the green 12 step prayer book over 2 1/2 yrs. ago and as I have read it almost every morning, it is starting to show wear. The prayer starts my day out on the right foot. The prayers are not targeted to any specific religion - they are spiritual prayers and although they are targeted to the 12 step program, whether or not you belong to a 12 step group they are just a good way of living ones life. I gave this edition a 4 instead of a 5 only because I have the green edition, which is similar but has the date of the year and a corresponding prayer number to read for that day. Not only did I start my day out with a positive thought from the reading but I also knew what day it was! I highly recommend getting both books which does have but I still prefer the green one to the burgundy one. The burgundy book picks up with prayer #184 which is where the green book ends on #193.

Always looking for new meditation/prayer books. This one is great Wonderful, thank you! Great condition and was shipped quickly.

Inspirational prayers that are in this book start my day right and are what keeps me centered and on the spiritual path I find refreshing in the variety of simple yet astute prayers here. The prayers also fit in with the 12 step recovery program I'm using to live a better life.

Such a great addition to the first book and now there are prayers for every day of the year. Both of these books (vol 1 & 2) are such a fantastic way to continue recovery everyday and to remember it takes one day at a time!

I enjoyed reading this book.

After how much I loved the first 12 Step Prayer Book, I was very disappointed in this second one. The prayers were not as inspirational or meaningful to me. The first one is much better. I wish I hadn't gotten this one.

A wonderful book.
