Customer Reviews

I was so pleased to finally find this collection of Kurt Weill. It's a mix of reproduced old sheet music with lyrics, chords, and piano staff music that I'm playing on accordion. Surprising how many great musical writers Weill worked with besides Brecht. Some of the songs are from old German versions, others English, and some songs appear in several versions. Personally I don't mind that, and I'm able to find everything I've looked for so far from The Threepenny Opera, which of course outclasses them all (no pun intended). This is a rich collection.
