This seemed a pretty average, solid, and useful travel guide. I found it out of date since there's no mention of the city bikes and bike lanes which were my favorite way to get around. Although the main city sites were mentioned, I didn't find any special gems mentioned in the guide.

Other than the obvious utility of a helpful listing tool capturing the attractions, personally, I found the detailed walks (e.g. Old Montreal including Notre Dame) very helpful: where to start, what to see... Helped me utilize time very efficiently during my stay.

Good general overview with maps. Need more suggestions for winter.

Great little book to take with you. Nice maps

Still working on this trip but great infos.
