Only one pair of birds (sparrow) can actually be found in my area. The rest are Eastern, European, or exotic. Wish there were more western birds.

This is such a beautiful, fun game. The booklet inside tells about each bird. It is a great addition to our homeschool.

Many of the same images used on Bird Bingo. Played once. Probably won't play again. Card are also too large for small space layout.

Beautiful quality memory game cards.

My family loves this game. The teenage girls even played with the younger kids. It's a Memory style game where you match the male and female of each type of bird. Simple. They love it. Cards are good quality and illustrations are lovely.

love this game! my son was so happy!

I love that these cards are matching the male and female of each bird. We studied ornithology this year and the kids loved this product. Great buy!

I got this for my little great nephew for his birthday and he is loving it. He loves birds, anyway, and so is learning a lot more about them. Excellent choice I made for him.
