Haruichi Furudate began his manga career when he was 25 years old with the one-shot Ousama Kid (King Kid), which won an honorable mention for the 14th Jump Treasure Newcomer Manga Prize. His first series, Kiben Gakuha, Yotsuya Sensei no Kaidan (Philosophy School, Yotsuya Sensei's Ghost Stories), was serialized in Weekly Shonen Jump in 2010. In 2012, he began serializing Haikyu!! in Weekly Shonen Jump, where it became his most popular work to date.

V6 moves us toward the hotly anticipated rematch between Aoba Josai (blue castle) and Karasuno. The Datekou conclusion was fantastic and well done showing us how emotional games in Haikyuu!! can be when the players realize that this is potentially the last time they can play with their seniors.

It was pretty sad to see Futakuchi Kenji, for example, getting all emotional when he realized their captain would no longer be with them. For the sake of the new Iron Wall, rebuilding the name, the players put up a brave front to steel themselves for the next tournament. For Aoba Josai and Karasuno's sake, the new game would enable them to finally play each other with what seems to be their final and end game team makes up. Great King v King, Oikawa v Kageyama, Teacher v Student, the all star VIP coveted match up between setters was underway. It clearly can not be contained in one volume and probably not even two but it was well done. Furudate gives me high hopes for the match. This volume included a Datekou bonus story, as well as the usual character profiles and sketches.

Awesome Series. Must Read!!

~3.5/5 Karasuno continues their game against Date Tech, and it's intense. They're trying hard, and they're ever optimistic. Date Tech proves to be a very good competitor, too, with their Iron Wall that makes it very hard to hit past. When that game ends, the group gets to go home for a night, then are back the next day. They get a little practice in, and to talk about their next competition - this time with Blue Castle. Blue Castle proves to be even harder, with their head man good at encouraging his team mates and very watchful of subtle movements. Oikawa's team mates like him and look up to him, and I do admit that he's good at working his teammates. But he's also a huge jerk, and I don't like him at all. I honestly don't see how anyone else does, when he feels rather fake to me. He's definitely smart, though. We're left on yet another cliffhanger, and I really can't wait to see what happens next. I want to see how this game ends - I'm really not sure if they're going to go forward or not. A review copy was provided by the publisher, VIZ Media, for an honest review. Thank you so, so much!
