In A People House (Bright & Early Books(R))

Synopsis

When a spunky mouse invites a passing bird to see what's inside a People House, chaos ensues while beginning readers learn the names of 65 common household items—and that people are generally not pleased to find mice and birds in their houses! A super simple, delightfully silly introduction to objects around the home—from none other than Dr. Seuss!

This is one of my favorite early childhood learning-to-read books. I giggled my way through it when I was a kid, and I loved reading it to my younger brother. I am surprised to see so many other reviewers unfavorably comparing "In a People House" to Dr. Seuss -- here's the truth: This book IS by Dr. Seuss. His real name is Theodore Seuss Geisel, and this book's author is...Theo. Lesieg. That would be Geisel spelled backwards. It's a pen name, get it? This book is meant for Dr. Seuss's youngest readers, which is why the pictures and text are so simple. It's fantastic, every child needs a copy by the age of 1 1/2, and I wish it were still in print.

Wow this book came fast. It actually passed other orders which I had placed way before it. Very please with the condition and the price!! My grand daughter loves this book. Excellent book to teach reading in the early ages.

I loved this book as a kid and now love reading it to my nephew. It teaches him the names of so many things in a fun way. It's also a book that kids can read by themselves fairly quickly since most of it entails naming items.

We're a PBS station that takes one of our "stars" to public libraries each summer to encourage children to sign up for the libraries summer reading programs. The children were thrilled to meet the Cat in the Hat in person and had their names put in a hat for a Seuss book drawing. The winners were thrilled to pick their own special book that they got to keep forever.

I love this book up until the last page where they show the humans throwing the bird and the mouse out the door.

I received my order in a timely manner and was very excited to know that I found this particular book at your company, I had been looking for it in various book stores and didn't have any luck. This was my youngest son's favorite book as a child and I wanted to get my first grandson his son a copy so my son could follow in his mother's footsteps by reading this book to his son. Thank you so much!

Classic books for a great price.
