"The Ultimate Guide to being a man of class and all things men." Seriously - that’s what it purports itself to be, yet it somehow delivers on that promise. Everything from what kind of suit to own and why; what shoes for which occasion; what kind of watch you should own and why; understanding women (as if that were actually possible but... at least it attempts to do something palpable with humor & style); and so much more. You will not regret buying this book. A great read that is worth every penny.

Like all things big and black, this book does not disappoint. Full of knowledge for the upwardly mobile male, this book will help you not be an ass in front of professional company. You'll need that if you want to succeed, so get this book and learn how to be a tactful gentleman such as myself. It's also a good gift if you're too fargone to be someone of class yourself. The least you could do is save a friend or family member from the same plight. Do it today.

A great collection of information for the gentleman of detail who cares. Contains just about ALL the essentials a gentleman needs to maintain. The other reviews say it all. Love the hardcover to protect everything.

Very fun and entertaining book with good info.

Thought most of it was amusing- however, some items were outdated, and the print was very light and looked as if it was copied on a 1975 copy machine. Even though, I would recommend it for its interesting content.

Lots of helpful advice. I gave it to our grandson who is just starting his job as a financial adviser, since I knew that much of the information in it would come in handy!

Timely delivery. Merchandise as depicted. Thanks.

Gave as gift to my step son on hi 17th Birthday!! Hope he reads it make the best out of it :-)
