Chief Honor (Orca Sports)

Synopsis

Lauren Cross is the first female player on a WHL teamâgoaltender Joseph Larken's team, the Spokane Chiefs. For Joseph, the prospect of a season in the publicity shadow of a new female goalie promises to be a nightmare. Hiding behind a carefully built wall of anger, Joseph is relieved when a scandal knocks Lauren off the teamâuntil he begins to believe she was framed.

Customer Reviews

"Compellingâreaders of sports and mystery novels will enjoy this high-interest storyâHighly recommended." (CM Magazine 2008-06-01)"What makes this book worth reading, especially if you are a hockey fan, is that Brouwer's main character is a goalie... AND he is in competition for the number one spot on his team with a girl!" (Resource Links 2008-10-01)"Brouwer combines the themes of teen issues, relationships, drugs, and disillusionment with parents and sports into a high adventure with ethical decisions looming." (Puget Sound Council 2009-09-01)

A female goalie forces Joseph to question his loyalties.

My 10yo hockey obsessed daughter has read most of the books in this series. Her favorites were Rebel Glory & Winter Hawk Star. She'd give those 5, with Winter Hawk Star being her absolute favorite. The reading level is slightly below a 10yo, but she loves hockey so much that she devours these books anyhow.

I would give this book five stars because it was a wonderful book I would give this book to Jake Walman

Another great book from this author! I really like his "Lightning on Ice" Series. This book is about a hockey goalie named Joseph Larken. Trouble is stirred up when a girl goalie joins the team. There are steroids, fights, and other things going on. Has great suspense and keeps a person reading.
