Super Vision (The Aberrant Series Book 2)

Synopsis

Can visions of the past prevent history from repeating itself? Shaun Boding, a.k.a. Fallout, never planned on being a superhero. All he wanted was to survive high school with a normal teenage existence. Those dreams were blown out of the water when he discovered the Vestige and gained the ability to fly and shoot pulse blasts from his hands. After defeating his mortal enemy, The Drone, Shaun continues to pursue the quiet life. His relationship with Mae develops, and he might even get a job as a comic book writer. Things are looking up - until a mysterious chameleonic villain called The Cloak appears and threatens to alter Shaun's life forever. No matter how hard he fights, Shaun needs to embrace his Aberrant identity now more than ever to take down this new villain and hold onto the normal life that exists just beyond his grasp. SUPER VISION is the second book in The Aberrant Trilogy. The Aberrant Trilogy: SUPER CHARGED SUPER VISIONS SUPER VILLAIN (Coming Soon)

Customer Reviews

Not a bad book needs more action but other than that not bad I liked the book and thank to the author for writing this book

Decent pacing, about the same as the first book, a little upsetting that there was not more info on Bill and prison. News articles should have abounded. The kids have smartphones and they almost never use them for research. Definitely looking forward to the last book of the trilogy, hopefully everything gets tied up to the satisfaction of Super Guy's fans.
