ReShonda Tate Billingsley is the #1 Essence bestselling author of numerous faith-based novels for adults, as well as the 'Good Girlz' Christian teen series. Her short fiction appears in the anthology Have a Little Faith. She is also the author of the nonfiction book Help! I've Turned into My Mother. --This text refers to the MP3 CD edition.

Maya Morgan and her high school friends appear on a show named Miami Divas. Everything is fine until Maya decides to go it alone. She is hired as the hostess of a new show. There is no longer a need for Sheridan and her other friends to appear on the show. The girls do not take this news happily. As a matter of fact, almost daily Maya has to walk down the school hallway and hear them holler names at her or just get in her face offering to beat her up. However, Maya is strong. She is determined to do this show for Tamera and do it well. Doing it well means digging up all the dirt that is happening in and about the Miami high school. There is always a chance for a lawsuit because the parents of these students are wealthy, and some are celebrities. It is no surprise when Maya starts her tell all show the students give her the silence treatment. Before the novel ends Maya will have tried to quit, but she can not get out of a two year contract. At this point stalkers and any other danger has become a part of her life. I really enjoyed the novel. I admired Maya for being such a strong young woman. Her dream is clear. She is determined to make it happen. Even the lost of her boyfriend, Bryce, does not stop her from moving forward on her show. When she is mugged by thugs, which I thought would turn into a rape scene, she still keeps walking forward. However, Maya becomes a bit too much. So involved with herself she misses the fact that this show is a serious one. After all, she is airing facts about the lives of people around her. She does not care whether she is hurting them or causing their life situations to worsen. The Glenda Matthews story is the one where Maya should have looked up and trotted the opposite way. However, like all busy, important people she misses the glowing red light and keeps going on with the story. She misses recognizing the identity of her true enemy. Maya does not have the intuition to know there are some rumor story headlines that are best left buried. Then, you might not hit a person's last nerve and find yourself looking into their crazed eyes. reshondatatebillingsley

My daughter loved this book! She was so enthralled in the characters and storyline. I asked her to rate the book on a scale of 1-5 stars. She said 5,000! Yes, you read correctly. FIVE THOUSAND. She loved it. Than you Reshonda for a quality story and colorful characters.

The details were so vividly executed. Although , I am an adult reader, I wasn't concerned with the setting of A high school and it's students! I am a fan of RTB whatever her intended audience is. She is always "on point" from the the very first page until the final word of the last page.

The rating is based on the writing. This is one of my favorite authors. I did not care for the characters. It was the lifestyle of rich and snobby teens.

I guess the book is for younger audiences. I thought it was kinda slow. But, since I like Reshonda Billingsley books, I thought I try it. It was okay.

Loved it! First time reading anything by this author, would definitely read others, drama was nonstop! Can't wait for part 2

Great book for teenagers. I love the author. All the books I've read are all excellent. Keep em comin please.

Great read for young adults
