Ladybug Girl Feels Happy

Synopsis

This concept board book is perfect for the youngest Ladybug Girl fans with its focus on feelings and emotions. Made with sturdy, thick, cardboard pages, the format is just right for toddlers' little hands. Ladybug Girl has many feelings: happy when she plays with Bingo, scared when the thunder is loud, excited when Grandma comes to visit, plus a whole lot more. Ladybug Girl and her dog, Bingo, share many of the same feelings because they are best friends, and now you can join them too!

Customer Reviews

Husband-and-wife creative team David Soman and Jacky Davis write the New York Times bestselling Ladybug Girl books together and all the stories are inspired by their own children and family experiences. David's gorgeous watercolor illustrations bring readers right into Ladybug Girl's backyard adventures with her, and you will want to stay and play all day!

Our toddler loves these books, and he is a boy. We have a Basset Hound and she looks like Bingo, which may be why he likes them so much.

I love this series. We read at three books every night and a Ladybug Girl series book is in at least every other day.

Great! My granddaughter love them.

My daughter received a couple of Ladybug Girl books from my sister when she was born. She is now 2 & 1/2 and is now starting to really get into them. I ordered this book in particular because there was a picture of it on the back of another one and my daughter requested it. These are quick, simple books and she enjoys them very much!

I love all these books and so does my daughter! This one is one of my favorites.

Bought this as a gift for a 2 year old who loves ladybug girl. Two year olds are not the best at explaining how much they like things, as their vocabulary is crap. I am assuming it's five stars.

My 2.5 year old loves this series. She enjoys all the books we've gotten so far and this one is no exception.

Great book for teaching my toddler about emotions. We live this whole series AND it's really getting her interested in reading!!
