Yahiya Emerick is a prolific author of books related to Middle Eastern religion and culture.

As far as translation, it is the best I have seen so far. However, the background/introductions can be more clear and on point. They are not the type of introduction that you would remember after a while kind of not coherent, or most important of all help you understand the context. I gifted this for my niece, but when I read a few pages I could remember much vividly from my childhood what the background of the Aya's were than what was written in segmented vague way by this translator.

Love this Qur'an translation. It is simple and clear, which is so hard to find. I also LOVE the background info provided throughout. Although it's titled "for school children," adults will appreciate and learn from this as well. The language and concepts are also for older children. My 11-year-old mostly understands, but some of it is above my 9-year-old's head.

EXCELLENT book for little muslim kids. So easy to understand. This is a MUST have. I bought this for my kids and for my nephews. They all love it.

This is the best explanation of Quran for children I have come across. It is equally valuable for adults who want to understand the background and context of a Quranic verse. Mr Emerick's contribution in the form of this book is extremely valuable, both for muslims as well any one who is interested in understanding Quran's content. I have bought a number of copies, for my children and for giving as a gift

Great for adults, too. I am enjoying reading this translation so much. I've told everyone I know read it. It reaffirms your faith and you get a good understanding of our Holy Qur'an. I actually look forward to reading the Qur'an!

Good bookWhen my kids start a new surah to memorize or read, we open the book to help them understand the meaning of itI recommend it for moms and teachers

Very helpful for Muslim children studying in secular schools where learning about the Quran is the responsibility of the parents. The background info on the verses is an excellent tool for understanding the context and meaning of the verses. The language is simple and clear. May Allah bless the author for this excellent effort.

Wonderful and easy translation for both adults and children. I really enjoy the historical background related to ayas. It is also very helpful to have a short summary of each sura at beginning. I have bought 6 copies so far for family and friends. I am sure I will buy more!
