The Space Within: Inside Great Chicago Buildings

Synopsis

For the first time, the interiors of some of the Chicago area's greatest buildings, designed by celebrated architects, are brought together and featured in truly stunning original photographs. These Chicago-area homes, religious spaces, and commercial and public structures give visual meaning to Frank Lloyd Wright's belief that the space within becomes the reality of the building. Beginning with the Clarke House of 1836 and continuing to the present, every type and style of building is presented. Famous residences such as Wright's Robie House and Mies van der Rohe's Farnsworth House are here, but so are more modest (and not so modest) homes by Walter Burley Griffin, George Washington Maher, and Paul Schweikher. The ornate warmth of Adler & Sullivan's Auditorium Building provides striking contrast to the modern, towering underground stacks of Helmut Jahn's Mansueto Library. The soaring Bahá'í Temple, by Louis Bourgeois, is elegantly highlighted alongside a humble chapel in St. Procopius Abbey Church, by Edward Dart. And commercial buildings by Daniel Burnham, John Wellborn Root, John Holabird, Martin Roche, and many more reaffirm Chicago's position as a great business center. These architects and their contemporaries have made the Chicago area a mecca for both architects and lovers of architecture from around the world. Text by author Patrick F. Cannon, who has lived and worked in Chicago and its suburbs for more than sixty years, discusses each building's architecture, architect, and place in history. James Caulfield, a noted architectural photographer, leads a visual tour into both the intimate and grand interiors of the Chicago area's finest buildings. Now the duo's fifth book, The Space Within demonstrates that good design comes in many styles. While many of these architectural masterpieces are open to the public, others particularly the private homes can only be seen here.

Nice book for architecture fans

Very professional and amazing.

The book is everything I'd hope it would be. The written narrative on details is wonderful. The pictures are spectacular! Worth the price.

A truly remarkable tome of great Chicago landmarks!

Perfect Christmas Gift.

Fabulous, absolutely fabulous. So often we walk through the city and admire the architecture. This book highlights and provides a view of the interiors' hidden treasures.

This book is extraordinary in the photographs and writing. My husband had heard about this book and asked our local library to purchase a copy. Turns out they had already ordered it and he was the first to check it out. I started looking through it and tears came to my eyes seeing such strikingly beautiful images of our wonderful Chicago architecture. I immediately asked my husband to get this book for me for Christmas which he did. I also gave a copy to a friend as a gift. I deeply appreciate both the writer's and the photographer's talent in making this extraordinary treasure.

This is a beautiful book. The photography is excellent and there is just enough writing about each entry to satisfy your curiosity. I especially like the fact that it covers a broad array of buildings, i.e., commercial buildings, houses of worship, private residences, etc. The quality of the paper is also excellent. It makes me want to handle the book with care. The total presentation of this book truly makes it a work of art. It was worth every penny.
