Jim Erskine is an author, cartoonist, game designer and a plain old grouch from Kentucky. He has published over 30 humor books, children's story books, and educational resources so far, and refuses to stop. His favorite page in this book is: "Some days teaching is just like herding cats."

This coloring book brought more joy than I ever imagined. It was the star of the show last faculty meeting.

I love the book! I am sharing it with teachers that I taught with for many years. They are really into it as well. I am so glad coloring is acceptable for adults now.... The product is wonderful and the service was prompt. I would definitely this book.

Gift for my friend who is a teacher. Came well protected and fast. She loved the pictures to color, and the sayings kept her laughing. Thanks much!

I really like the sayings and most of the designs, but the pictures only take up about half the page. A few of the designs will be hard to color because the picture is so small. A lot of the designs are pretty simple as well, which is OK because I can come home and color a quick picture to unwind then get to work on other things. Overall, 3 stars for the sayings and most of the designs that I can color. Luckily, it was only $7 or it would have been rated lower.

I love the phrases in this book, they're hilarious. However I didn't realize that the pictures were not full page. They are only in the center and have a lot of white space surrounding them. That was the only thing I found disappointing.

This is perfect for a stressed out teacher!!! The pictures are so cute and could very easily be framed! I'm going to get these for my teacher friends for Christmas!

All teachers will relate to these Funny quotes. There are a ton of pages too.
